CCS' AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. To the extent that any violations are established, any such violations were not intentional and resulted from bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted and specifically intended to avoid any such error.

2. Plaintiff has not stated a claim upon which relief may be granted.

3. CCS denies any liability; however, regardless of liability, Plaintiff has suffered no actual damages as a result of CCS' purported violations.

6. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of avoidable consequences, failure to mitigate, estoppel, waiver, unclean hands, consent and/or assumption of risk in that plaintiff: refused and/or failed to answer the calls or return the messages left; made no request for the calls to cease or otherwise object to the calls; and knowingly and intentionally allowed and facilitated the calls to continue with the sole purpose to accumulate statutory damages under the TCPA and FDCPA.

7. Plaintiff consented to and authorized calls to the phone number in question for the account that CCS was working.

8. 1 or more calls made to Plaintiff by CCS were not made to a cell phone.
